Appointments

It is recommended you see us by appointment. If you have an emergency, call 911 or go to your nearest emergency room.

Telephone Calls

Our switchboard is open during regular business hours as indicated in Practice Hours. To make your telephone contact with us easier, we have direct lines for billing and lab results.

Payment

In appreciation for payment at time of service, we give a 20-percent prompt pay discount. We accept major credit cards or welcome your personal check. However, if you prefer, we will bill you for your visit. If you have insurance or Medicare, we will be pleased to bill them for you. Please let us know at time of arrival how you wish to make payment so we can expedite forms if necessary. If we can assist you in any way with payment procedures, just ask us.

Extras

For temporary use we have wheelchairs and crutches available. On rainy days, we have umbrellas, too. When you visit our office, we provide complimentary coffee, milk, juice, and rolls. If there is anything we can do to make your visit as pleasant, please let us know.
